

Blue and Orange Tick Swing Tag and Sticker Order Form

The Blue and Orange Tick certification agreements allow suppliers to make use of the AFRDI Blue Tick and Furntech Orange Tick certification mark to promote certified products. An easy way to identify certified products is through swing tags and stickers and the cheapest way to source them is through Furntech.

There is a standard format that can be simply and quickly prepared – all you need do is complete the attached order form. In every case a proof will be provided and approval and payment is required before the print run starts.

You can design your own layout if you wish although set up costs may be charged. Customised swing tags or stickers require specific written authorisation by Furntech (this is required whoever prints the promotional material).

Swing Tags

Swing tags come with the Blue Tick or Orange Tick certification trademarks on one side (varnished to be rub-resistant) and listed products in the standard format as per the attached on the other with holes punched in the corner. Costs quoted below exclude GST and freight/postage:

500	$355	71.00 cents each
1,000	$410	41.00 cents each
2,000	$480	24.00 cents each
5,000	$650	13.00 cents each

Stickers

The same guidelines apply regarding content and layout as for swing tags although there is less room in the standard layout for products to be listed.

Prices for stickers are available on request.

Mock Up

See page 3 for the mock up of the Blue Tick swing tag and sticker. Please note Orange Tick swing tag and sticker are the same layout except it has Furntech instead of AFRDI and the background for the Tick is orange.
